The Bazar is edited with a contribution of tact and talent that we seldom find in any journal; and the journal itself is the organ of the great world of fashion.—Boston Traveller.

The Bazar commends itself to every member of the household—to the children by droll and pretty pictures, to the young ladies by its fashion plates in endless variety, to the provident matron by its patterns for the children's clothes, to paterfamilias by its tasteful designs for embroidered slippers and luxurious dressing gowns. But the reading matter of the Bazar is uniformly of great excellence. The paper has acquired a wide popularity for the fireside enjoyment it affords.—N Y Evening Post.

The Evening Post.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

Monday, July 7th, 1873.

Chief Justice Pearson.

The Raleigh press are responsible for the report that this gentleman has been recommended to the President as a fit successor of Chief Justice Chase. Of the truth of the report, we do not speak advisedly, though we have no doubt but such is the fact. We should hate exceedingly to lose the services of this eminent jurist in North Carolina, but his long life devoted to the legal profession, and the high positions he has held for many years here, assuredly fit him in an eminent degree even for the position of Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States. Honored as few men ever were honored in North Carolina, holding his office by the unanimous vote of the entire State, no appointment could be made more gratifying to a large majority of the State than this. Whatever may be said of the Chief Justice's political predilections, if he has any, we doubt much if any attorney who practices in the Supreme Court of this State will be willing to say he is not a very learned Judge.

Educational.

It is pretty generally understood that an Educational Convention will be held in Raleigh on the 9th and 10th instants, and we hope there will be a large attendance. Our educational affairs are indeed in bad shape. The law, as remodeled by the Democratic Legislature, is so perfectly useless and impracticable that the children, save where money is supplied by private aid, cannot obtain an education. The law seems to be designed to help those only who are able to help themselves, while those portions of the State, not fortunate enough to secure private aid, go without schools!

We do hope that this matter will be looked squarely in the face, and that some plans will be devised in the interests of the ignorant, who long to instruct their youth, and are now unable to do so. Of course, nothing can be done, outside of legislative enactment, to benefit the State, but the action of this Convention, if properly managed, will have an influence that may move the great charter granting Legislature to do something of benefit to the people by way of variety.

Most schoolboys are familiar with the story in the back part of Webster's spelling book, which teaches the lesson that it "makes a difference whose ox is gored." We remember reading it over when a boy, and wondering why the lawyer should put an "if" into the settlement when he found that his bull had gored the farmer's ox. Since we have been in political life, we have ceased being astonished at such trifles, though we always think of the story, and sometimes call attention to this peculiarity among political editors.

As an illustration, the Charlotte Observer, of July 3d, can be classed as A1. Speaking of Gen. Butler, and the usual Democratic charges of theft, it says: "Beyond a general denial of their truth—the thief's usual and formal plea of 'not guilty'—Gen. Butler has never seen fit to offer any evidence with which to rebut the proofs of dishonesty adduced against him," etc. In another column appears an editorial notice of a pardoned kuklux, of whom it says: "Rev. John S. Ezell, of Spartanburg district, S. C., an aged and exemplary minister of the gospel," etc., and again, "Mr. Ezell stated the circumstances under which he joined the kuklux organization. He said he had never been on a raid, and during the time of his membership had never done anything of which his conscience did not approve. It was thought well, however, by the government to make an example of some one, and the lot fell to him."

Here is another general and formal plea of "not guilty," but the Observer puts it in altogether a different light.—It is a little remarkable that, with all the convicting proofs of outrages committed in that State, the recital of which even startled Reverdy Johnson, that the government should have selected an "exemplary minister of the Gospel" as a victim.

Lieutenant Commander Silas W. Terry is ordered to the Naval Observatory at Washington, D. C., on the 10th inst. Lieutenant William H. Parker, Jr., has been ordered to the Hydrographic Office on the 15th inst.

The system of rewards to spies adopted by the Government, is, in our opinion, wrong. Many cases of outrege are reported, and honest men put to enormous cost for some slight informality, that it has become almost an outrage.—A few months ago, a gentleman in this city was arrested for not having cent stamps on his sardine boxes. The law had been repealed as to most sorts of shell fish, and other canned goods, but, from some oversight, sardines, was omitted in the bill repealing the act. The Government claimed forty cents, and the suit cost the gentlemen over five hundred dollars. The late J. A. Clifford placed a bunch of cigars in his show case, beside the box they came from, but not exactly in the box. This cost him over seventy-five dollars.

We see that Col. Eastman a U. S. Commissioner, and W. H. Deaver a deputy U. S. Marshal demanded to see the books and papers of Col. W. A. Smith, receiver of the Western N. C. R. R., to find if stamps had been omitted. Col. Smith finding they had no papers or commissions, ejected them very properly from his office and they arrested him, holding him under $2,000 bail to appear at the U. S. Court. The matter being brought before Judge Dick, he issued the following sensible order:

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT,
WESTERN DISTRICT OF N. C.,
Greensboro', N. C., July 1, 1873.

Upon letters of information and affidavits filed:

It is ordered that a rule be served upon W. A. Smith, Receiver of the Western N. C. R. R. Co., to appear before me on the 14th day of August next to explain his conduct in reference to certain bonds in his possession as Receiver of this Court, which are alleged to be not properly stamped, and also for arresting W. H. Deaver, U. S. Marshal, and Oscar Eastman, U. S. Commissioner.

It is also ordered that notices be issued to W. H. Deaver, U. S. Deputy Marshal, and Oscar Eastman, U. S. Commissioner, to show cause before me on the 14th day of August next, at 12 o'clock, M., at the office of the Clerk of this Court, in Greensboro', why they arrested the Receiver of this Court for refusing to allow them to inspect bonds and papers in the possession of this Court, without an order of this Court so to do; and also show cause why they shall not be attached for contempt and removed from office for interfering with property in possession of this Court, without an order from this Court so to do.

It is further ordered that the said W. A. Deaver and Oscar Eastman desist from making arrests for any violation of the Stamp laws(now repealed)except upon the written instructions of the U. S. Dist. Attornew or some U. S. Collector of Internal Revenue, specifying the parties to be arrested and examined, until the further order of this court.

It is further ordered that no witnesses be summoned in this matter but upon the order of this court, which order will be made upon the written application of the parties specifying what such witnesses are expected to prove.

Let a copy of this order be served with the process.

[Signed] ROBERT P. DICK,
U. S. Dist. Judge.

A true copy of the order on file in this cause.

[Signed] JNO. W. PAYNE,
Clerk.

The following circular was issued by State Treasurer Jenking, and for the information of all concerned we publish it:

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA,
TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
Raleigh, July 2d, 1873.

To the County Commissioners:

In view of the important character of the decision hereto appended, (Judge Reade's decision on taxing money on hand) I transmit the same to you.

It is seen that the Supreme Court recognizes the power of the State to tax United States Treasury notes and National Bank bills as money; also, solvent credits.

It is apprehended that many taxpayers, taking advantage of the recent decision of Judge Tourgee, in the case of Ruffin vs. Commissioners of Orange, have failed to list the amount of their money on hand or on deposit the 1st of April, also their solvent credits. That decision having been reversed by the Supreme Court, as announced in the decision of Justice Reade, the law taxing these subjects remains in force, and I suggest to the Commissioners that it is their duty to see that it is executed by requiring tax-payers to list their money and solvent credits, observing subdivisions 4th and 5th of sec. 9, of the "Machinery Act."

I reaffirm the position taken in my opinion, dated April 16th, 1873, which was transmitted to the Commissioners of the several counties, and your attention is again called to it.

D. A. JENKINS,
State Treasurer.

MR. N. L. LONG, of Halifax county, has one thousand acres of lowland in clover. When cured, it is very valuable, and worth from $1 50 to $3 per hundred pounds. An acre, at the lowest figure, will yield a ton, which is worth $30 or more. After a good stand is obtained, but little or no labor is necessary.

DAVID & WEIL.

THE iron front for D. A. Smith's new building is now being cast at Hart & Bailey's foundary. This building will be an ornament to the city and we are glad that Mr. Smith patronizes home manufacture. This is the great principle which will build up our land.

SUPERIOR COURT.—The Court finally closed between 9 or 10 o'clock Saturday night after waiting several hours for a decision of the jury in the case of Dawson vs. Howe, of which notice was heretofore made. The jury finally reported that they gave lot No. 3 to the plaintiff, No. 6 to the defendant, and that they could not agree as to the ownership of No. 5. We do not know what condition this places the suit, but suppose it will have to be tried again. The jury was discharged and the Court closed for the term.

Do you belong to that unfortunate class of people who, when they visit the Sound, are always welcomed by "We are very glad to see you, but then we are sorry that the wind has just died out; yesterday was a perfectly delightful day; we had an excellent breeze all day long?" When greeted thus, you can look out for mosquitoes, sand flies, etc., though, however, there is never any of these pests at the house you happen to visit, according to the landlord's version, and there are any quantity next door. We visited the hamlet of a friend yesterday, and met with a very warm reception, every mosquito, sand fly, etc., turned out to meet us. We are vain enough to think that we are exceedingly popular on the sound among these sweet songsters and affectionate flies, as they are never seen only when we happen to be spending the day.—Isn't it better to be born lucky than rich?

A WOMAN DEAD.—A despatch was received this morning from Capt. J. G. Daniel, Conductor on the Carolina Central Road, stating that he saw a woman lying dead beside the track, just across the Hilton Bridge. Coroner Howlett summoned a jury and the following facts were elicited. The woman's name was Milly Swann. She was a colored woman aged about 45 years. It seems she started yesterday evening after the storm, from the residence of her daughter in this city, to visit some parties at Mr. Young's plantation. She crossed the railroad bridge, and while going along the track was taken suddenly ill. She called for assistance, and two men helped her along, carrying her for some distance, and then placing her in as comfortable position as possible, went for her friends. Upon their return she was dead. The verdict of the jury is that she came to her death from causes unknown to the jury.

YESTERDAY.—Sabbath morning opened clear and exceedingly warm, but, considering the season, the church services were well attended. The severe storm in the evening cleared away before dark and though the attendance at night was comparatively small, the coolness of the atmosphere rendered the time much more comfortable. Bishop Atkinson, having returned Saturday night, preached in St. Paul's in the morning and was present at night when Mr. Ambler preached. This gentleman leaves the city to day, to be gone for some time. Mr. Curtiss preached at St. John's in the morning. He is at present a deacon in the church, but will be ordained in a short time as a priest. Rev. Dr. Watson preached at St. John's. Rev. Mr. Alexander, of Wadesboro', preached at the First Presbyterian church morning and night. Rev. Mr. Burnheim having returned, occupied his pulpit at the Lutheran church, preaching in English in the morning and in German at night. Rev. Mr. Bogwell preached at the Front street Methodist church, though Dr. Moran was in the city. Rev. Mr. Burr has returned and preached at the Second Presbyterian church. Services at St. Marks were conducted by Rev. Mr. Brady. The services at St. Thomas' church were well attended, Rev. Father White officiating.

Mayor's Court.

His Honor W. P. CANADAY, Mayor, presiding.

SARAH RAY, for drunkenness and being disorderly on the Thursday last, was fined $20 and cost.

ELIZA FAISON, charged with being drunk and disorderly on the street, was required to pay the cost.

SAM GOODSON, charge with stealing a double barreled shot gun from George Walton, was bound over in the sum of $100 for his appearance at the next term of the Superior Court.

E. J. HANCOCK, W. E. Thompson, C. Wallace, C. Page, Jos. Turner and L. Herring, charged with bathing in the river within the city limits. Hancock, Turner and Herring paid half penalty and cost. Thompson, Wallace and Page paid ten dollars and cost.

JNO. MERRICK, charged with three offences, viz: Disorderly conduct, resisting a police officer and drawing a jack-knife on William Phinney. Cases continued until 9 o'clock to-morrow.

CARRIE FELTON, charged with disorderly conduct, was fined $20 and cost.

"WAKES" are in themselves very innocent and may be a great comfort to many who participate in them, but when they are developed into a nuisance, by very loud singing and shouting, which keeps a whole neighborhood awake for hours, we think it is about time for the city authorities to take some action to have them conducted in a less noisy manner. Our attention has often been called to these "wakes" with a request that we should call the attention of the city authorities to them, but we have refrained up to this time because we never like to interfere with any one's religious opinions, nor do we want it thought by any one that we would do so, but we will simply ask all classes of our citizens who participate in them to try and be less noisy in their demonstrations in the future.

Those who indulge in those "wakes" cannot but see upon a moment's reflection the wrong they do others by breaking their rest at night. A hard working man, who faithfully performs his duties during these warm days is completely unfit for work when he is broken of his rest at night. As we said before, the midnight devotions may be a great comfort, but when they annoy others we hardly think it is Christian like for them to be conducted in so noisy a manner. We as Christians should have some regards for our neighbors.

A SATURDAY NIGHT SKETCH.—The cool breeze from the ocean that fanned the brows of the jostling crowds, came cool and fresh, welcome as though freighted with the echoes of the laughter on its beach the day before, and refreshing to even the tired little ox panting by the roadside. And Luna, the moon, hath grown so that deep shadows are cast upon the sidewalks, and the tips of the silver white onions sparkle in the moonlight like the lovely bride's diadem of pearls as she sails up the church aisle on the important occasion of her life! Oh onions! lasting in your fragrance, healthy, and yet so personal in your effects, always making yourself known and remembered, shunned by the refined and eagerly sought for by those who "don't care," how beautifully you lay upon your bed of green among the deep shadows of the market cart last Saturday night. Not the toll of the 9 o'clock bell and the gradual dispersing of the crowds had any effect upon you. There in your pure beauty you lay waiting for fate as a very Presbyterian. And to day, while Saturday night is forgotten, and no thought of the good things offered for sale on that memorable occasion are remembered, your fragrance goes out over the city, not to be forgotten or escaped!

The showers had so refreshed and cooled the air that everybody was out enjoying the delightful evening, save twelve men shut up in a room in the court house, who would not agree. The right to sit on juries my be one of the great bulwarks of our liberties, but we never yet saw men happy when confined under charge of an officer, trying to agree. Then they all wish they were firemen. But these unhappy twelve wouldn't agree, and they gazed out into the moonlight, several of them from the country, with the knowledge that they would have to remain in the city over Sunday, and others, who, residents of the city, saw the hours fly by and knew the first choice for delicacies was fast passing away. But they did not agree. Here is thought for reflective men over the different minds. Here were twelve men who had devoted three days to listening to evidence and learned speeches from skillful attorneys, a careful summing up of the entire cause by the presiding Judge, and yet a portion of these men decided one way and the balance another, and after hours of consultation, away from all others, each side stood firm and would not change. The finding of a jury is indeed impossible to foretell. So our jury agree to disagree and are discharged, and the tremendous labor of counsel and court gone for naught.

This is a pious city, or rather all the barbers are pious or lazy, and they won't shave any one on the Sabbath day. No matter what the necessities of the case may be, no knight of the lather brush can be found at his watchtower on that day. So, one by one, all the pretty clerks slip from behind their respective counters and wait their turn. No favoritism here. Every man must wait meekly until one of the numerous Jims cry out "next," and another county is heard from. We have often wondered why it is that so many barbers in this city are named Jim. It is inexplicable, but if a card appeared in THE POST to-day addressed to a barber named "Jim," three-fourths of the expert shavists in this city would answer it.—We know one Jim who gracefully jerks his powder puff on Market street, who is the King of his profession, as it were, from whose temple of art a perspective view of the market carts can be obtained, and whose genial entertaining gossip whiles away the monotony of a shave. Long may he wave, and as the last cart slowly drags away for home, and the store lights have gone out, and the accustomed soft shell crab supper discussed, the bright light, glancing over the lathered faces of the row of tired men, getting shaved before going home, is the last reminder of the week's close.

A letter from Geneva to the World gives a conversation of the late Empress of France. She says her visit to France is for political purposes, and it is useless to try to conceal it. She believes that there will soon be a general return of the people to order, and said that the Piedmontes Government at Rome, the anti-Christian and Pagan Court at Berlin, and the wild Communists at Madrid are filled with fear at the awakening of Catholic France, now that the wretched Thiers is gone, All the moves that McMahon makes are prudent, as he loves France. The future, said Eugenie, is ours, and France will lead the reaction against the forces which have seemed to threaten the existence of society and religion throughout Europe. She saw in the future that France may again be at the head of the nations, the robbers driven out of Rome, the Pope restored, Germany divided into harmless States, and Austria again strong.

SIXTH YEAR.

THE ALDINE,

An illustrated monthly journal, universally admitted to be the handsomest periodical in the world. A representative and champion of American taste.

NOT FOR SALE IN BOOK OR NEWS STORES.

THE ALDINE, WHILE ISSUED WITH all the regularity, has none of the temporary or timely interest characteristic of ordinary periodicals. It is an elegant miscellany of pure, light and graceful literature, and a collection of pictures, the rarest specimens of artistic skill, in black and white. Although each succeeding number affords a fresh pleasure to its friends, the real value and beauty of THE ALDINE will be most appreciated after it has been bound up at the close of the year. While other publications may claim superior cheapness, as compared with rivals of a similar class, THE ALDINE is a unique and original conception—alone and unapproached—absolutely without competition in price or character. The possessor of a complete volume cannot duplicate the quantity of fine paper and engravings in any shape or number of volumes, for ten times its cost, and then there are the chromos besides!

ART DEPARTMENT.

Notwithstanding the increase in the price of subscription last fall, when THE ALDINE assumed its present noble proportions and representative character, the edition was more than doubled during the past year, proving that the American public appreciate, and will support, a sincere effort in the cause of Art. The publishers, anxious to justify the ready confidence thus demonstrated, have exerted themselves to the utmost to develop and improve the work; and the plans for the coming year, as unfolded by the monthly issues, will astonish and delight even the most sanguine friends of THE ALDINE.

The publishers are authorized to announce designs from many of the most eminent artists of America.

In addition THE ALDINE will reproduce examples of the best foreign masters, selected with a view to the highest artistic success and greatest general interest, avoiding such as have become familiar through photographs, or copies of any kind.

The quarterly tinted plates, for 1873, will reproduce four of John S. Davis' inimitable child-sketches; appropriate to four seasons. These plates, appearing in the issues for January, April, July and October, would be alone worth the price of a year's subscription.

The popular feature of a copiously-illustrated "Christmas" number will be continued.

To possess such a valuable epitome of the art world, at a cost so trifling, will command the subscriptions of thousands in every section of the country, but as the usefulness and attractions of THE ALDINE can be enhanced, in proportion to the numerical increase of its supporters, the publishers propose to make "assurance doubly sure" by the following unparalleled offer of

PREMIUM CHROMOS FOR 1873:

Every subscriber to THE ALDINE, who pays in advance for the year 1873, will receive without additional charge a pair of beautiful oil chromos, after J. J. Hill, the eminent English painter. The pictures entitled "The Village Belle" and "Crossing the Moor" are 14x30 inches—are printed from 25 different plates, requiring 25 impressions and tints to perfect each picture. The same chromos are sold for $30 per pair in the art stores. As it is the determination of the conductors to keep THE ALDINE out of the reach of competition in every department, the chromos will be found correspondingly ahead of any that can be offered by other periodicals. Every subscriber will receive a certificate, over the signature of the publishers, guaranteeing that the chromos delivered shall be equal to the samples furnished the agent, or the money will be refunded. The distribution of this grade, free to the subscribers of a $5 periodical, will mark an epoch in the history of art, and considering the unprecedented cheapness of the price for THE ALDINE itself, the marvel falls little short of a miracle, even to those best acquainted with the achievements of inventive genius and improved mechanical appliances. (For illustrations of these chromos see Nov. issue of THE ALDINE.

THE LITERARY DEPARTMENT

will continue under the care of Mr. Richard Henry Stoddard, assisted by by the best writers and poets of the day, who will strive to have the literature of THE ALDINE always in keeping with its artistic attractions.

TERMS:

FIVE DOLLARS per annum, in advance, with oil-chromos free.

THE ALDINE will hereafter be obtainable only by subscription. There will be no reduced or club rate; cash for subscription must be sent to the publishers direct, or handed to the local agent, without responsibility to the publishers, except in cases where the certificate is given, bearing the fact-simile signature of Jas. Sutton & Co.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT.

In accordance with our last prospectus, the specially reduced rates for 1872, viz: Weekly, per year.....$1 00
Semi-Weekly, per year..... 2 50 will be maintained for all new subscribers, and all old subscribers renewing prior to the 15th day of January, 1873, when the above Club rates will take effect.

THE NEW YORK WEEKLY TIMES
Will contain Selected Editorials from the Daily Times; General News, Domestic and Foreign; The Proceedings of Congress and the State Legislatures; Full and Interesting Correspondence; Book Reviews; The Choicest Literary Selections; while its most prominent feature will be a COMPLETE AGRICULTURAL DEPARTMENT, with original articles from practical farmers; full reports of the American Institute Farmers' Club; complete weekly market reports; financial, domestic produce, live stock, dry goods and general.

AS A FAMILY PAPER,
The TIMES will have no superior; it will be free from all appeals to vulgar and impure tastes, and may be safely admitted to every domestic circle.

AS A REPUBLICAN JOURNAL,
The TIMES will be devoted, as in the past, to an intelligent and firm support of the Republican Party. Its course in reference to the Tammany Ring, at a time when all the other daily papers in New York obstructed and discouraged its efforts, attests its sincerity in the cause of Reform. The TIMES stood alone in demanding Reform from 1869 to the close of 1871, and there is no sincere and honest proposal for Reform, in any branch of the Government, which will not be heartily supported by the TIMES. But it will not conspire in assisting ambitious politicians or demagogues to reach power under false pretenses. It will not encourage defection from the Republican Party, which is still the party of progress, security and national prosperity.

It will sustain, with all the force and influence at its command, the principles and policy which have rendered that party so justly famous in our history. It will advocate those measures by which the honor, the peace, and the prosperity of the nation can be best secured and promoted, and will constantly study the wants of the people rather than the wishes of the politicians.

THE NEW YORK SEMI-WEEKLY TIMES
Is published every Tuesday and Friday, and contains all the agricultural and literary matter of the Weekly edition, and a full and careful compilation of editorial and news features of the Daily.

Terms of the Semi-Weekly TIMES: One copy, one year, $3; two copies, one year, $5; ten copies, one year, $25—and one extra copy free.

Subscripttons to either of our editions received for a less length of time than one year at yearly rate.

These prices are invariable. Remit in drafts on New York or Post-office Money Orders, if possible, and where neither of these can be procured, send the money in a registered letter. All Post-masters are obliged to register letters when requested to do so, and the system is an absolute protection against losses by mail. Address

We especially call the attention to the following testimonials of the Paint:

C. P. Knight, Esq.—Dear Sir: I have used Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint on my dwelling last Spring, and am much pleased with it, and it looks as well now as when first painted, and consider it a good Paint. Yours, truly,
Creswell P. O., Hartford county, Md., Feb. 6th, 1873. A. H. STRASBAUGH.

THE PLAINS, FAUQUIER CO., VA., Feb. 6th, 1873.

Mr. C. P. Knight—Sir: The Paint came safely to hand as ordered—two kegs, five gallons each, and three buckets, one gallon each. As practice was slack, I did the job myself. Two weeks, (not constant work,) completed the house two coats. The last coat I applied thick, and it is now generally conceded that for enamel-like hardness, and body, and harmony of colors, there is not a handsomer job in the place. I saved sixty-five dollars by the operation, which is an item just now with Southern people. It should be generally adopted in this State. Any country lad can apply it. I have never dabbled in such stock as testimonials, but I feel so forcibly the great adaptability of your "Fnamel Paint" to the wants of our people, in excellency of material, in beauty of color, and in the fact of its being "ready mixed" that I give you free permission, (if it is desirable to you,) to make what use you think proper of this letter.

Very respectfully and truly,
S. McGILL, M. D.

TO THE PUBLIC—It affords me much pleasure to state that in July, 1871, Front Street Theatre was painted inside and out with "Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint," for which C. P. Knight, No. 93 West Lombard Street, is agent, and, to testify to its superiority over any and all other paints for similar uses. In no private dwelling can paint possibly be subjected to the very severe test it undergoes at this establishment, where, during our daily cleaning, soap and soda are constantly applied to it, and yet it appears as sound and fresh as when put on. Of the numerous advantages it possesses over other paints, I will only mention its being mixed and ready for use in quantities to suit purchasers, its quickly drying properties, which saves much time in the execution of work were paint is needed, and its very perceptible tenacity, which imparts beauty and durability to the objects on which it is used. As such I most earnestly recommend it to the merchants and tradesmen of our city, believing it will give them greater satisfaction than they can possibly anticipate.

WM. E. SINN,

BALTIMORE, April 25, 1873. Front Street Theatre.

CHAMBERSBURG, December 10th, 1872.

Mr. C. P. Knight—Dear Sir:—The paints we received from you have been applied to several of our own buildings and to those of our friends, and have given entire satisfaction in covering qualities, in gloss, and in adaptability to all kinds of surface of material and we cheerfully recommend it, especially to that class of consumers who have to depend upon unknown parties, or painters to mix and furnish materials, wherein we have found the most deception.

Yours, truly,
JACOB STOUFFER & SON.

FROM HON. JOHN WETHERED.

Mr. C. P. Knight:—At the recommendation of a friend, I was induced to apply your patent "Bradley's" paint to my house. I have pleasure in stating that it has proved highly satisfactory, covering more surface than you promised, is more economical, carries better gloss than ordinary paint, and is freer from disagrecable odor.

Yours, Respectfully, JOHN WETHERED.

BALTIMORE, December 27th, 1871.

C. P. Knight, Esq., Agent for Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint—Dear Sir:—The paint we purchased from you we will chcefully endorse as the best of any kind we have ever used; its covering qualities is everything desired, drying promptly and with a hard gloss which must, we think, resist the action of all kinds of weather. This is our experience, and we can recommend it with certainty, and intend to use it on all occasions where we desire a good job of work.

Very Respectfully, EMART & QUARTLEY, 270 W. Baltimore St.
House, Sign and Frescoe Painters.

PLEASANTVILLE, HARTFORD CO., MD.

Mr. C. P. Knight—Dear Sir:—I am very happy to inform you that your "Patent Enamel Paint" has given entire satisfaction. I prefer it to any paint I have ever seen used, and recommend it for durability and beauty as paramount to any other.

Very Respetfully, R. DICKEY, M. D.

"Unquestionably the best sustained work of the kind in the World."

Harper's Magazine.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

The ever-increasing circulation of this excellent monthly, proves its continued adaptation to popular desires and needs.—Indeed, when we think into how many homes it penetrates every month, we must consider it as one of the educators as well as entertainers of the public mind, for its vast popularity has been won by no appeal to stupid prejudices or depraved tastes.—Boston Globe.

The character which this Magazine possesses for variety, enterprise, artistic wealth, and literary culture that has kept pace with, if it has not led the times, should cause its conductors to regard it with justifiable complacency. It also entitles them to a great claim upon the public gratitude. The Magazine has done good and not evil all the days of its life.—Brooklyn Eagle.
